Encounter with "SS Intelligence Service" by a CARP Source
A Herr KRICK and a Herr SCHILLING of Berlin-Friedenau (CARP sources) were recruited in Berlin by a man called Herr BAR.* BAR placed these men on his payroll for a time, after which he told them that they had been selling info in other places (to the French). BAR held the men in a hotel room for a time after which he released them. KRICK filed illegal arrest charges against BAR at the KST-5. KRICK's description of BAR is the following: @ BRACHT, appr. 1.90cm, full figure, 34 or 35 yrs old; coarse voice; bloated dissipated face, elegantly dressed. He wore a solid color brown suit of English material and a green leather coat; lived on Wilhelmhoherstr. on the Sudwestkors; has a cigarette box with an engraved iron cross; claims to have been a "Spiegel" reporter. According to KRICK, BAR is the "Berlin Chief" of the "Utility groups". Cohorts of BAR include BRAUN @ HANSEN; deputy of BAR, Fritz DORN @ Fritz TRAUBE, Fritz LANGNER, Father in law of Dorn., KARSTEN, fnu; Gerda lau, BAR's secretary. The Berlin/Carp organization assumes that the organization which held KRICK was ZIPPER.
